Rooted in Community Conference
www.rootedincommunity.org

The Rooted In Community National Network (RIC) is a national grassroots network that empowers young people to take leadership in their own communities in fostering healthy communities and food justice through urban and rural agriculture, community gardening, food security, and related environmental justice work. Every year we have a conference to share best practices, learn new skills, and have fun!

Thanks to all of the farmers who contributed to the farm guide! If you are interested in being listed in next year's guide, please contact us at info@healthyandroscoggin.org.

We value your feedback. Please visit <http://healthyandroscoggin.org/healthy-eating/> to fill out our survey about this farm guide. Thank you!
